WITHDRAWAL FROM A COURSE

Ordinarily, withdrawal may take place up to the midpoint of the term or session. Refunds, however, may be obtained only through the fifth calendar week for online courses. The date of withdrawal is the date on which written notice of such a request is actually received at abender@sjcny.edu. In the absence of written notification, the date of withdrawal is determined by the vice president and dean. The percentage of tuition, which will be charged in all cases, will be determined according to the following schedule:

FLAT RATE

The flat rate for tuition covers 33 credits per academic year. In this way, the College's requirement of 128 credits can be achieved in eight terms. Full-time students—those taking at least 12 credits—are charged the flat rate of $23,500 per academic year. Intersession and summer session courses are not included within the flat-rate tuition and must be paid for per credit. Full-time students who take more than 33 credits per academic year will be charged for each additional credit. Up to 18 of the 33 credits may be taken in one semester without an additional charge.

FLAT-RATE TUITION LIABILITY

Full-time flat-rate students who receive permission to withdraw from a single course are not entitled to a refund unless the withdrawal involves extra credits, paid for by that point. Once the session has begun, flat-rate students who change their programs to less than 12 credits will continue to be responsible for the flat-rate tuition charge (as opposed to the per-credit rate). For example, after the session starts, students who change their programs from 12 to 9 credits will still be responsible for 12 credits at the flat-rate charge. Also note that students who increase their programs from fewer than 12 to 12 or more will be charged the flat-rate tuition for the semester, regardless of the date of the change of the program. Billing statements from the business office will be revised to reflect this change.
